

The Humanitarian Side of Cyberabad Police

The KPHB police identified an elderly woman named Uradi Leelamma (74), who had wandered away from home and was found in a distressed state, begging for food on the streets.

Responding with compassion, the police first moved her to a nearby old age home to ensure her immediate safety and care. Following this, they launched an investigation based on her details to track down her relatives. They successfully located her younger daughter, Pramila, residing in Deenabandhu Colony.

After completing the necessary verification, Leelamma was safely handed over to her daughter today. Residents and family members expressed high praise for the police's humanitarian gesture in reuniting the elderly woman with her family.

