

Inter-departmental co-ordination meeting held at Cyberabad CPO

- ‘Fool proof Arrangements Are Made for Ganesh Festival’
- Focus on Incident-Free and Grand Festivities: CP

Cyberabad, August 20, 2025: In preparation for the upcoming Ganesh Festival celebrations, Commissioner of Police Cyberabad Avinash Mohanty, IPS., convened a high-level inter-departmental co-ordination meeting today at the Cyberabad CP Office auditorium. The meeting was attended by senior officials, including Jt. CP (Traffic) Cyberabad Dr. Gajarao Bhupal, IPS., DCsP, Additional DCsP, ACsP, and representatives from various government departments such as GHMC, R&B, HMWS&SB, Fire Services, Revenue, Transport Department, RTA and others, along with members of the Bhagyanagar Ganesh Utsav Samithi (BGUS).

Addressing the gathering, CP emphasized the significance of Ganesh festival as one of the biggest festivals celebrated across the state which will commence on September 27.08.2025 and conclude on September 06.09.2025. CP directed the officers and staff to work together to ensure foolproof arrangements and that the festivities are held in a peaceful atmosphere without any untoward incidents.

CP instructed officials to ensure that street lights, floodlights, and necessary cranes are arranged in advance at ponds and other immersion sites, in co-ordination with GHMC officials. For the convenience of devotees, he recommended setting up tents, electric lights, barricades, adequate water facilities, mobile toilets and medical facilities at the immersion sites.

CP directed staff to collect details of the management committees under their respective Police stations and to co-ordinate with relevant departments to avoid electrical accidents and interruptions in power supply.

He urged the public to celebrate peacefully and warned against believing false rumours on social media, stating that there will be strict monitoring of such posts and legal action will be taken against those spreading misinformation. CP stressed that ensuring the safety and comfort of women during the Ganesh festival is a priority and a measure of the success of the event. He advised the Police staff to be polite to devotees and remain vigilant regarding peace and security matters, with special attention given to Dial 100 calls, CCTVs, and visible policing.

Cyberabad Jt. CP (Traffic) Gajarao Bhupal, IPS., emphasized the need for an advance, well-coordinated plan involving all relevant departments to ensure a smooth and orderly Ganesh procession. He recommended the strategic deployment of Police personnel, swimmers, cranes, lighting, and CCTV cameras to maintain safety and security throughout the celebrations. Additionally, he underscored the importance of minimizing traffic disruptions during the festivities to facilitate the smooth movement of vehicles and ensure a seamless experience for all participants and citizens.

Hemanth, IAS., GHMC, Zonal Commissioner –Serilingampally, instructed the officials to co-ordinate closely with other concerned Government departments, including GHMC, Fire Services, Water Drainage, Medical, Electricity, and Transport, to organize seamless arrangements for the celebrations. He reiterated the importance of 24-hour uninterrupted power supply, road repairs, and sanitation work to be completed before the festivities. He requested devotees to celebrate Ganesh festival in a dignified and peaceful manner, fully cooperating with the police and utilizing the special amenities provided.

The meeting concluded with a strong commitment from all departments to work together to ensure a successful and peaceful Ganesh festival. The Commissioner assured that the police force is fully prepared to handle the large-scale event, with all necessary resources deployed to ensure public safety.
